

SCRAPS

20-GAME WINNERS: Four National League pitchers have hit the 20-game win plateau so far this season. From the left they are Jim Maloney of Cincinnati, Juan Marichal of San Francisco, Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles and Dick Ellsworth of Chicago. Whitey Ford of New York is lone American Leaguer to win 20 games to date.

SPORTS

SCRAPS

These ten football players didn't all get a shave from one blade, but they're all in the same boat as the Blue Bombers try to get something going and break the longest losing streak in Western football history. They all joined the team since the opening game as injuries hit the Big Blue in an unprecedented wave, and they may have trouble believing this was once the most feared football machine in the nation. Left to right: Bob Reed, Leon Pagac, Bob Miller, Wayne Dennis, Bob Lazark, Art Perkins, Fred Fleming, Dick Quast, Ray Osbourne, John Simmons. They play Montreal Alouettes, Monday night.

NO SORROW HERE: This was the scene in the dressing room of the Los Angeles Dodgers Tuesday after they had beaten the San Francisco Giants 8-7 in the second game of the National League best-of-three pennant playoff. From left to right are Maury Wills, who scored the winning run; winning pitcher Stan Williams; and Ron Fairly, whose sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth brought in the winning run.

CANUCK ATTACKERS: This trio of Moose Jaw forwards, two of them all-stars, will be expected to tote much of the offensive load for Jack McLeod's Canucks tonight when they meet the Regina Pats in key SJHL contest in the Stadium, starting at 8. Canucks haven't fared well against Bob Kirk's crew this year but will be out to turn the tables tonight and strengthen their grip on the sixth and final playoff spot. Above are Jeff Powis (left) and all-stars Gary Longman (centre) and Terry Leifson.