SPORTS

Everything went Crown(well)

Crownwell 5 Strathcona 0

"I couldn't have done it all by myself. It was a total team effort," emphasized Byron Kadatz, after he and his Crownwell teammates had won the Alberta Junior A Fastball Championships at Meadowview Park Sunday. But ask the runner-up Strathcona Juniors and they'd probably tell you what Kadatz - the Crownwell captain - did ... was everything!

LOU KOHLMANN

"Kadatz was super all weekend," exclaimed Strathcona manager Ron Liepert, as the Crownwell crew finished the 11-team double knock-out tournament with a perfect 4-0 record.

HE'S SAFE

There was a lot of sliding going on Sunday, but this time Strathcona second baseman Kevin Knoske dropped the ball and the Crownwell runner was safe. Only two Strathcona runners made it as far as second base all afternoon.

SUPER SLIDE
Crownwell Juniors' second baseman Neil Stanard watches the ball come loose as Glen Breitkreuz of the Strathcona Juniors slides into second base. Breitkreuz was injured on the play and was taken to hospital. Photos by Al Popil.

Extra innings

Strathcona left-fielder Glenn Breitkreuz, who left the game in the first inning after being struck on the and by an errant pick-off attempt, returned to the line-up in the sixth following a brief stay at Sturgeon General ... Knocked out by the eventual also-rans - the Strathcona Juniors, St. Albert (2-2), did not return following Strathcona's 6-3 victory.