Alberta Film

2005 Set Tour

Six MLAs get a first hand look at the film industry in Alberta

From 1:00 to 7:00 PM on November 25 six Members of Alberta's Provincial Legislature, accompanied by an Alberta film industry team, visited William F. White, the CFB Studio in Hanger H1 and the "Assassination of Jesse James" set near Canmore. Presentations were made from production personnel on the film, including producer David Valdez, publicist Lee Anne Muldoon and locations manager Reno Pace. The MLA tour was designed to show first hand the workings of the film industry in Alberta.

The industry team also made presentations during the event providing a comprehensive overview of the industry with specific reference to the Jesse James project.

This event demonstrated the collaboration existing in our industry, as a broad range of key stake holders was involved.

MLAs attending were Film Industry Liaison Ron Liepert - MLA Calgary West, Janis Tarchuk - MLA Banff – Cochrane, Len Webber - MLA Calgary Foothills, Richard Marz - MLA Olds – Didsbury, George Groeneveld - MLA Highwood, and Dave Rodney - MLA Calgary Lougheed. Messrs. Marz, Groeneveld and Rodney were accompanied by their wives.

The Industry Team on the tour included; Dan Chugg, Alberta Film Commissioner; Tina Alford, Alberta Film; Sue Bristow, Calgary Film Commissioner; Patti Tucker, Edmonton Film Commissioner; Damien Petti - IATSE 212, FCAC Member; John Scott – Wrangler; Jean Merriman - White Iron, FCAC Member and AMPIA Director; Tom Cox - Alberta Filmworks
